

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 29, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

Anti-baiting line begins forming

Bill could bring millions a year to hospitals

Seat belt bill debate expected

Editorials

Dead or alive, the gas bill is killing us

Voters should be worried about Legislature more than flag

Voters should get more flag choices

Open government should be getting more attention in 2001 session

<http://web.sunherald.com>

Heat bills shock Gulfport, Biloxi residents

Jack Frost nips at folks' wallets

Montgomery gets kissed, roasted

Editorial:

www.djournal.com

Bill to provide cancer funds for uninsured

House OKs bill to help rural hospitals

Musgrove meets with Bush to talk about education

LENA MITCHELL: Rebel flag may foreshadow Mississippi's future

Contractors' contributions -- Stop campaign donations in Transportation politics

<http://www.enterprise-journal.com/>

Musgrove: Bush tone good on education

www.stateline.org

Bush's Education Plan Brings Hope, Worry To States